

I am writing in response to the Telephone issue with the Bank's wanting phone numbers. First off, they shouldn't need access to numbers as they are wanting because they should already have numbers to their current and even their past customers. Secondly, we sign up for the NO CALL LIST for a reason and that should be honored!!